From Washington.
[Tribune's Gorrespondence.]

Washington, Nov. 21.—The papers in the case of Gen. Fremont have for some days been in the hands of Major Lue, Judge Advocate of the Army, who to-day made his report to Gen. McCielian. Accompanying the report were charges substantially the same as those preferred by Col. Blair.

Gen. Anderson recently expressed to Gov. Androw his strong desire that a regiment of Massachusetts soldless might be sent to Kentucky. He was sure that no sectional feeling would hinder the men of Massachusetts from receiving a hearty wolcome in Henry Clay's State.

Advices received by the Government from Great Britain represent that though much soreness of feeling is evident toward the United States, yet there was a manifest feeling adverse to a war, and that the sentiment in favor of maintaining a strict neutrality was daily of maintaining a strict neutrality was daily strengthening.

Advices from France indicate that the feeling on the part of that government toward the United States is more cordial than ever.

The Government has no evidence of any rebel privateer steamer being on the seas, except the Sumter, and she is endeavoring to clude capture.

The steamer Wyandank ran the blockade last night and reached the navy yard this morning. She was not fired at. The schooner E. B Hale also ran the blockade, downward, last night, having on board a large quantity of ammunition and ordnance stores generally. Two schooners loaded with wood ran the blockade successfully on Wednesday night.

The enemy is apparently at work on a new battery at Possum Nose, which is far above the others.

The names of a large number of old vessels are published to-day. They are loaded with stones and are doubtless to be sent to Southern burbors and sunk, thus rendering the blockade effectual.

[Special to the Commercial.] The murderer of Lieutenant-Colonel Van Gorben has been arrested. The evidence against him is very clear. Judge Black, Mr. Buchanan's Attorney Gen-eral, is in the city.

Col. Mulligan at Cincinnati. Col. Mulifigan at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Nov. 20.—Col. Mulligan arrived at the depot last night at nine o'clock, where he was tendered the hospitalities of the city by Mayor Hatch. He was then escorted to the Barnet House, and being called to the balcony, was addressed by Hon. Henry Stanberry. Col. Mulligan replied in a short speech, which was enthusiastically applauded by the large crowd assembled.

Col. Mulligan will speak at the Catholic In. Which is, in all respects, clearly the "AUTOGRAT OF Col. Mulligan will speak at the Catholic In stitute this evening, and on Monday evening will probably address a citizens' meeting.

An ordinance appropriating $500,000 for the relief of the families of the volunteer soldiers of this city, was adopted.

Tumors, and all diseases which destroy life, have always exhibited, upon dissection of the body, a number of harder concrete points, either in some of the organs named or in the blood vessels, sometimes even ramifying in the flesh, and again deposited upon the side of a bone. WERRESDAY, NOV. 20.—The market opened this morning extremely dull, courrary to the anticipations of most of those interested, and it will be vary hard to closs out all the stock on sale without a reduction from the rates of pesterday, that owners are unwilling to submit to.—Fortunately for them, the trade just at the close of business y sterday was lively, and more bulleoks were sold in an hour before dark than in any other hour of the day, and at better prices for all the lower grades, but not for the best class; they were in excess of the demand at the selling rates, and so they are to-day, and holders will have to submit to a decline or not make sales, as the retail butchers are only here to-day in very limited numbers, while the supply of first class bullooks is larger than it has been upon any closing day of the market in some meanths. Last wednesday, it was difficult to find half a dozen choice bulleoks of eight hundred weight and some meaths. Last Wednesday, it was difficult to find half a decen choice bulleds of eight hundred weight and appeard in all the parts. To day, it is not dimenit to find a hundred such, while the demand is principally confined to the wholesale butchers, who will not pay Sc not $\phi$ for such cattle as sold freely for that yesterday. Consequently the salesmen find it difficult to close out, and the business drags through the day, several small lots having arrived to add to the difficulty. Upon the whole, we can only advice a slight advance upon the lower and medium grands of cattle and the medium grands of "An English gentleman, formerly connected with the British Army, and who styles himself the 'Indian Botanie Physician,' has of late gained an extensive reputation here by his skill in caring all manner of complaints. Some of his patients I have conversed with, and they pronounce his remedies and mode of treatment as very superior. Some have been restored as if hy magic. The medicine he uses is distilled by himself from various herbs possessing rare curative properties.

"While acting in the army he devoted his leisure mounts to a thorough study of the effects produced by certain medicinal roofs and herbs on all manner of diseases. It seems he has found a sure and speedy remedy for all the 'ills that flesh is beir to.' His practice is already extensive and is dally hereasing.
